Council 6, Magnolia
Jackson, Mississippi
Volume 1

When you are old and gray and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep

W. B. Yeats

Council 6, Magnolia, proudly displays its premeir portfolio of memorabilia. It is our fondest hope that this yearbook will serve to create reflections of golden times past.

reflections Collection 2

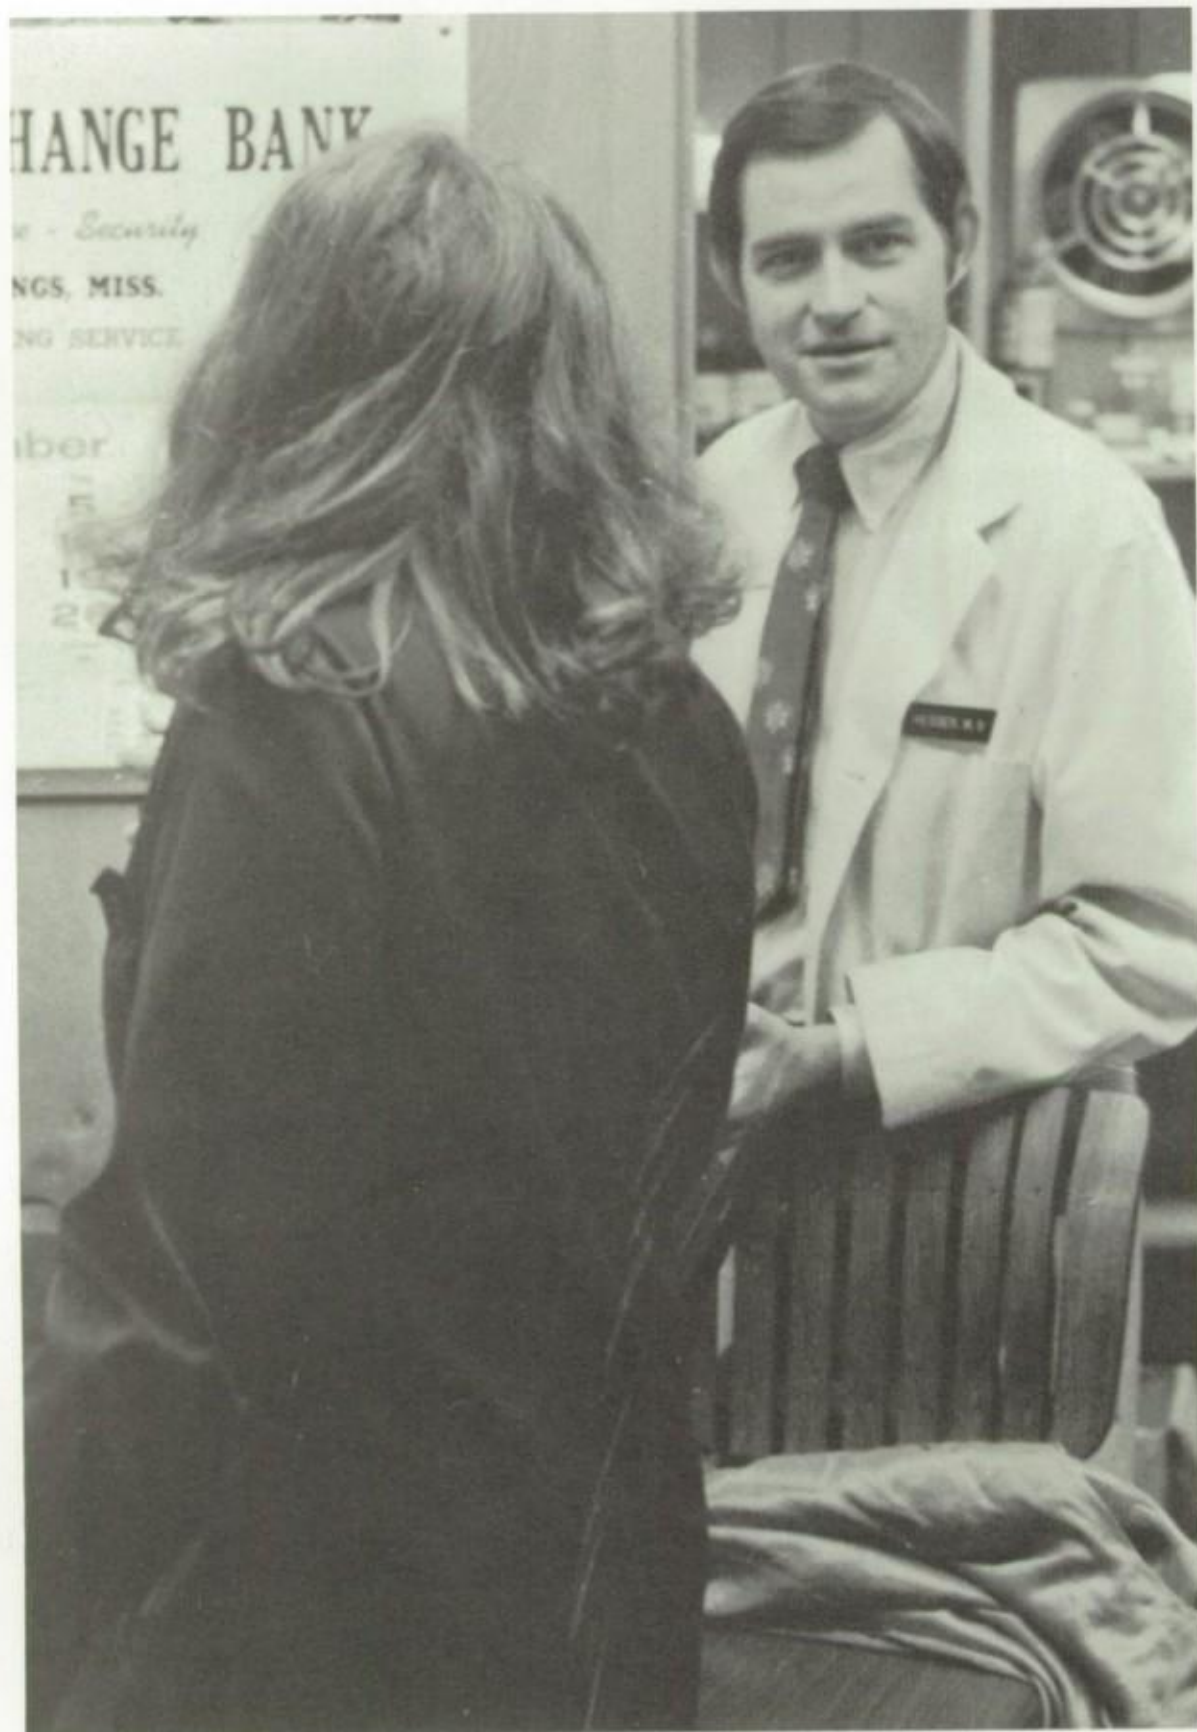

A Beginning

The sun shone brightly as Council 6, Magnolia, took form in the first week of July. Completed in November of 1970, the campus encompasses twelve modernistic buildings and a multi-purpose store. Complete with carpeting and air conditioning, the rooms add comfort to education.

A hectic day of registration ended with the acceptance of five hundred and twenty-five students. The Clinton Boulevard Church housed a surplus of four classrooms and sixty-five elementary students.

PLAYING FOOTBALL

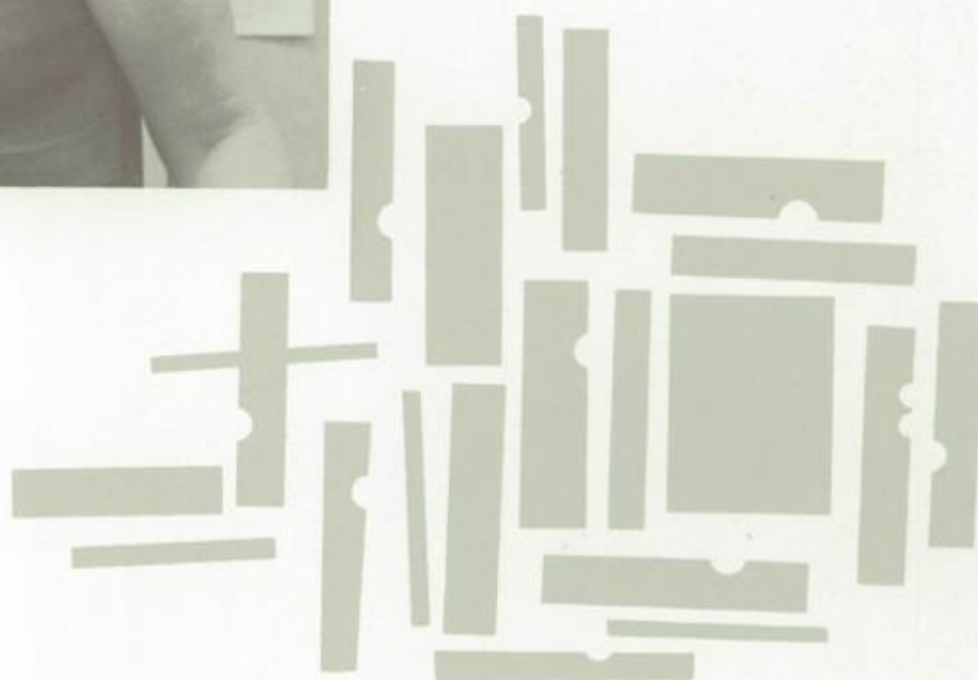

FACULTY

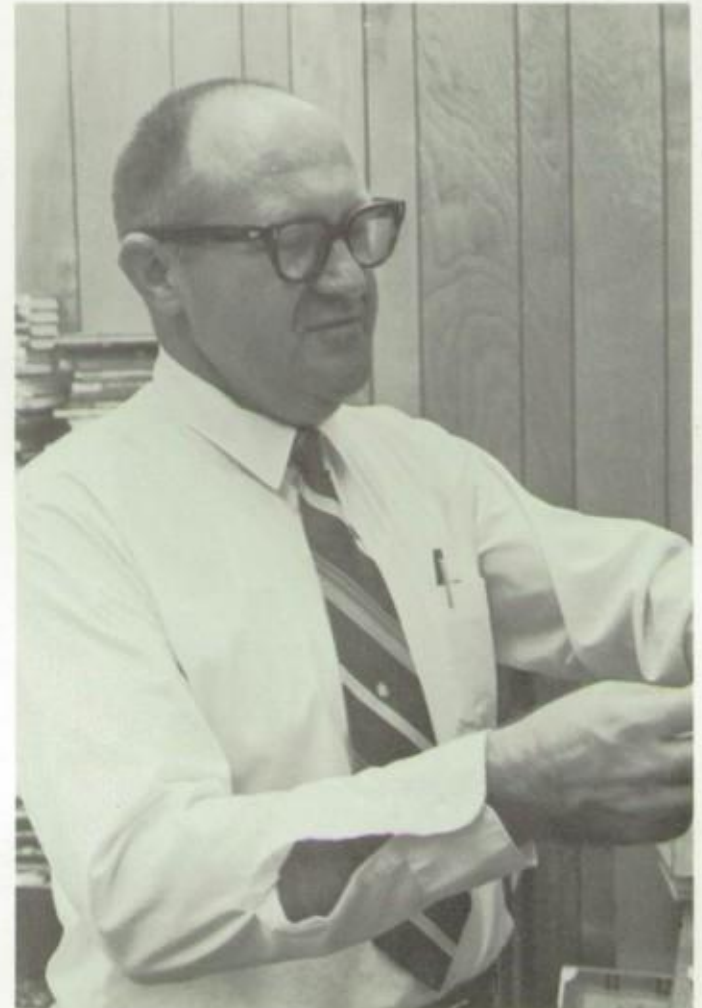

With the advent of Council 6, Magnolia, came the arrival of twenty-five new educators. It was up to our teachers, as educators, to make each class successful and enjoyable throughout the school year. Even though the many problems of a new school confronted them, our faculty came through with all flags flying. Each has displayed concern, along with friendship, through the brotherhood of teaching. The students of Council 6 are proud of these most worthy advisaries.

William S. Purvis—Principal

For guiding us through the turmoil and frustration of our first year; for the fortitude and unselfish service you have displayed, we thank you.

Organizations

Choir

In our opening year, Miss Laurie Craig has organized the Council 6 choir.

The nineteen "Young Folk" have sung popular selections in clubs throughout Jackson.

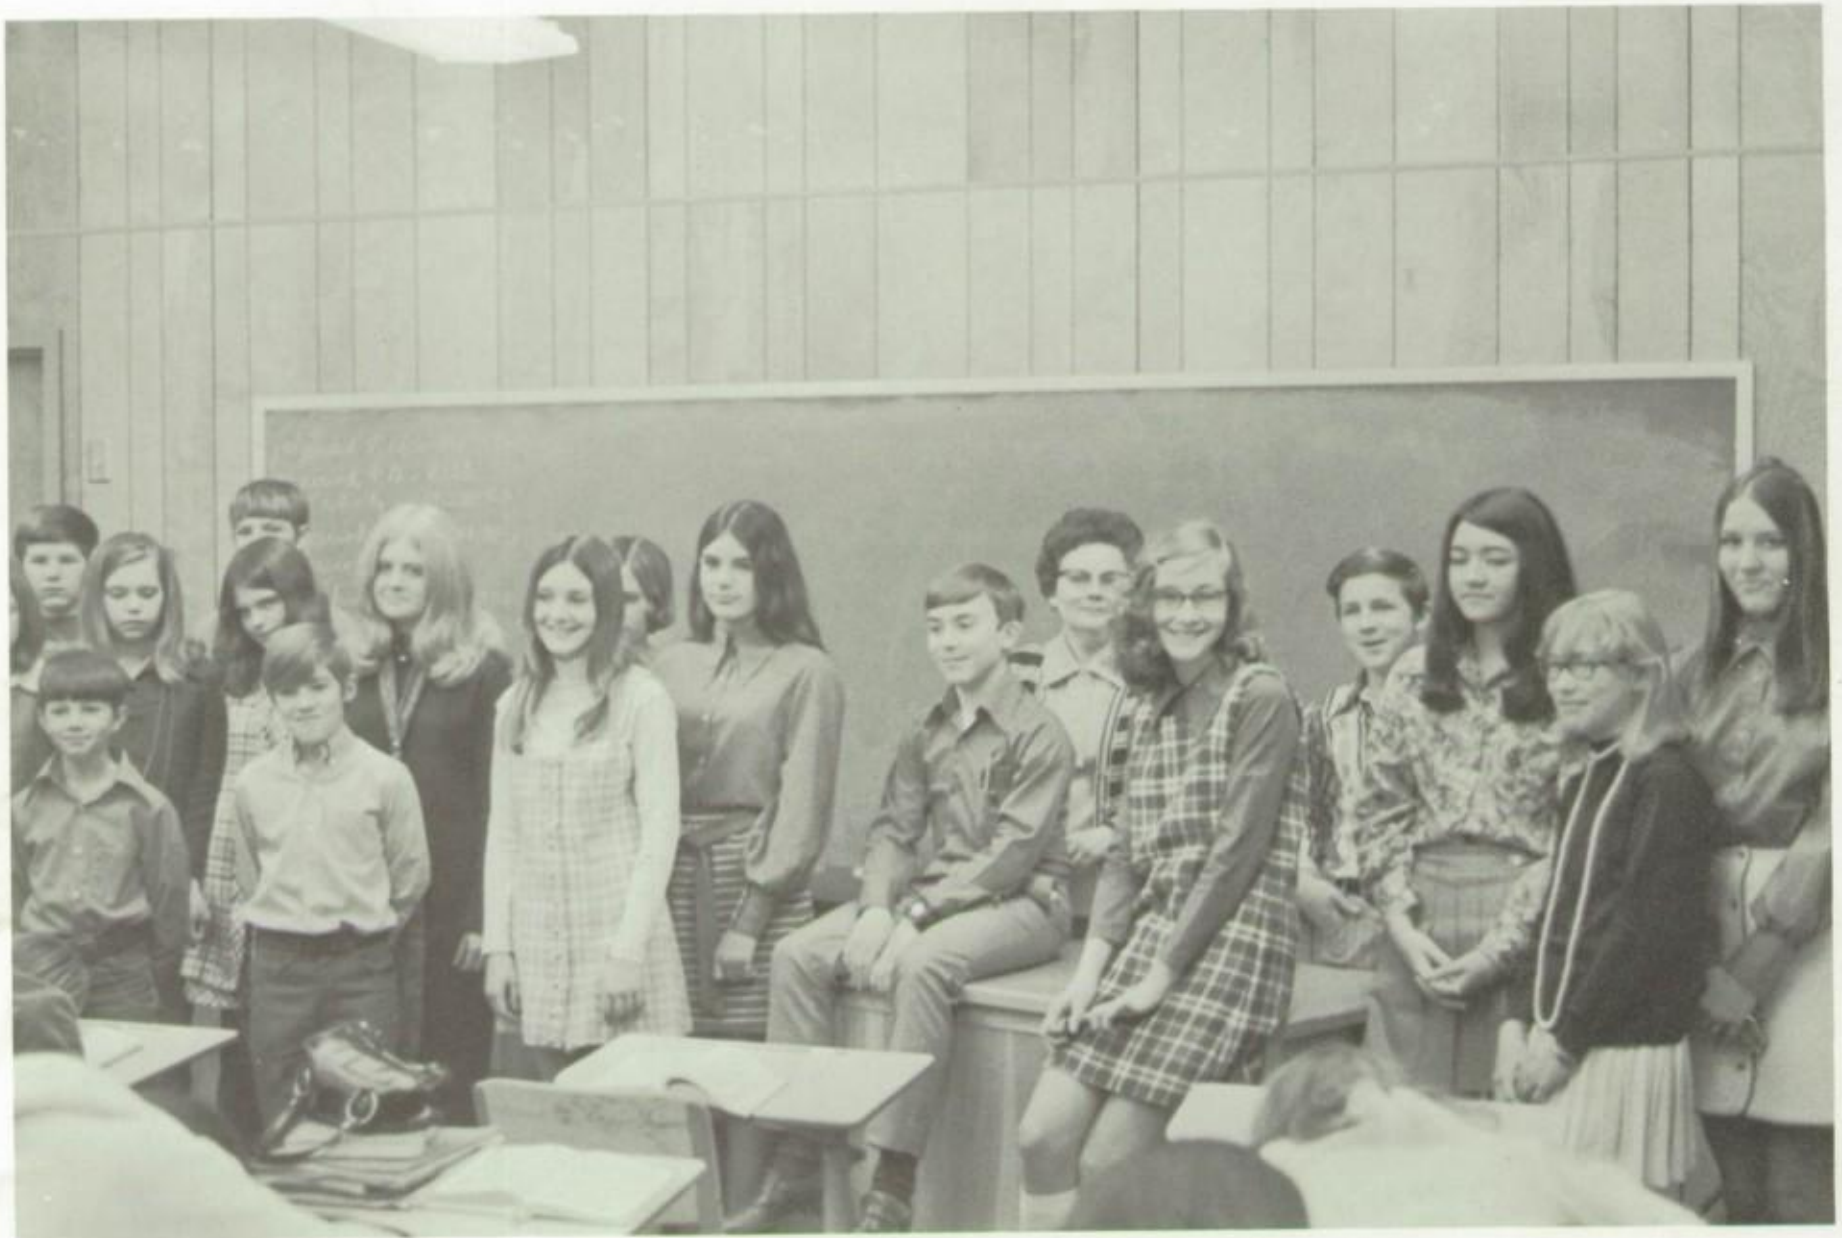

The girls are attired in navy blue dresses and black shoes; the boys in red, white, and blue. The look is casual and produces a bright effect of the school's colors.

Junior High Journal Staff

The Junior High Journal is the official publication of Council 6. It is produced in its entirety by the Junior High classes and their sponsor, Mrs. Royalty. The first edition was distributed on December 16, 1970.
